The Last Word - Grand Knight's Corner

Welcome to autumn, my Brother Knights. As you all know this is a busy time of year for us and I hope, if contacted, you will volunteer your time to some of our functions! The first one is September thirtieth which is corporate communion at the Eight O'clock Mass. Please attend if you can and wear your Green Jacket if possible. The next event is our annual Tootsie Roll Drive which will be the weekend of October Twentieth and Twenty-first. The last really big happening is a change on our annual schedule. It is our Pork Feed which has been moved from the Fourteenth of October to the Seventeenth of November. I know these things require a lot of time and effort but with all of your help, I know we can be just as successful as ever.

I would like to thank all of the Knights who attended Brother Wayne Crooks' Diaconate Ordination. There was a great turnout by all of St. Patrick's parishioners, but Fr. Oliver made it a point to tell me how special the Knights in green made the event and to thank us!

So far my term as your Grand Knight has been a busy one and I can honestly say that I didn't realize how much time and responsibility this would require, but I meet these challenges gladly in order to serve you my Brothers.

Vivat Jesus!

Bob Greer, Grand Knight
